ROAD ROLLER GOES THROUGH BRIDGE

The Ripley Beo says: The county road building outfit was taken through town last Thursday and taken out the Aberdeen pike. When crossing the bridge near Elijah Fitch's the heavy road roller broke through the bridge. Elmer Conn, who was running the engine, saved himself by jumping into the branch. It was a narrow escape for him.

SURPRISED THEM

Well, well, well! The Maysville men find from the Somerset report that they are now running in second place. Somerset made a gain of forty last Sunday, having ninety to Maysville's fifty. This put Somerset thirty-two ahead. Unless some tall hustling is done Maysville cannot win for Somerset is determined Maysville shall not do so. The men's class now ask all the men of the city who can reasonably do so to attend the sessions of this class during the next three Sundays. Maysville can win if the men of the city decide that she must do so.

To Be Present at State Sunday School Convention Here in October—Main Sessions To Be Held in Baptist Church—Annual Banquet To Be Held Thursday, October 18.

Executive Committee of the Mason County Sunday School Association met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Tuesday night to discuss plans for the State Sunday School Convention which will be held in this city October 16, 17 and 18.

At a meeting held in this city some time ago the following officers were elected and officers appointed: Chairman—Rev. A. F. Stahl. Vice Chairman—Rev. W. P. Hooper. Secretary—Miss Mary Mathews. Finance Committee—Miss Mary Wilson, Chairman; Miss Jennie Dickson, Mrs. Bollinger, Mr. J. B. Wood and Mr. J. C. Burwell.

Committee Meetings—Prof. W. T. Berry, Chairman. Entertainment, Registration and Reception Committee—Prof. C. S. Dale, Chairman.

Publicity Committee—Carl Dadds, Chairman; representatives of daily newspapers. Social Committee—Miss Elizabeth Quaintance, Chairman.

Usher Committee—Rev. W. B. Campbell, Chairman.

Decorating Committee (Churches and Stores)—Mr. James H. Hall, Chairman.

Administration Committee—Mr. C. Frank Nash, Chairman.

Conferences Adult Department—J. H. Richardson. Secondary Department—Miss Jennie Dixon. Elementary Department—Miss Nanette Tully.

Reports of Committees Prof. W. T. Berry reported that arrangements had been made to hold the main sessions of the Convention at the Baptist Church. The various departments will hold conferences at other churches, as follows: Elementary Department—Third Street M. E. Church.

Secondary Department—First Presbyterian Church.

Adult Department—Christian Church.

Administration Committee—Central Presbyterian Church.

County Officers—First M. E. Church, South.

Exhibits and Registration—First Presbyterian Church.

On motion of Prof. W. T. Berry it was decided to hold the annual banquet of the county officers and guests on Thursday evening, October 18, at 6 o'clock.

Prof. C. S. Dale reported that it was the plan of his committee to solicit homes to rent to the delegates and to have the High School girls to assist in the reception, it being understood that over two hundred delegates will be present.

The question of the appointment of a Music Committee was left in the hands of the Executive Committee of the local organization. The Chairman intimated that it was his plan to call a meeting of each church choir leader to form a Music Committee, which would arrange for the proper seating capacity of the large choir and the piano. It has been planned to have Rev. O. C. Ragan of Louisville to lead the singing and Prof. Roper to play the piano, which is an assurance that the musical features will be of the highest order.

The Finance Committee reported that a portion of the $500 needed to finance the Convention had been raised, but that quite an amount of effort is needed to satisfactorily complete the work. This Convention is a big thing for the city and the merchants should give it all the aid possible, financially and otherwise.

It was suggested that the county delegates be urged to remain in the city during the entire Convention as it is the desire of those making preparations that the county shall more than measure up to its share in making this Convention a success.

It was decided that as a fitting conclusion in the entertainment of the Convention to have an auto ride about the city, showing the visitors the beauties of Maysville and Mason county.

INITIAL SURVEY FINISHED

By Government Doctors—3,839 Homes in the County Visited and Vital Questions in Disease Prevention Discussed—County Health Officer a Necessity When Survey Work Closed.

The Sanitary Survey forces have finished the first round of visits in the county and are now engaged in revisiting different sections to see what has been done in the last three months towards better sanitation, and directing the construction work.

In all 3,839 homes in the county have been visited and the vital questions in disease prevention discussed with the occupants. At some places visited no one was found at home and in these cases an effort was made to "call again" in order that all might receive the benefits of this work.

At every home literature on "Typhoid fever," "Good Water," "Care of the Baby," etc., was left and the people urged to take advantage of the help given them by the Government and State in installing so cheaply the Sanitary toilets. Many have taken advantage of this and the work of installation is progressing nicely. At present forces of men are at work at Minerva, Lewisburg, Sardis, Mayslick, Orangeburg and Springdale.

Work has been started at the various schools that have the material on the ground and if the trustees of the schools will notify the Survey office when they are ready the matter will be attended to at once, as this school sanitation is most important. It is the aim of the Survey to accomplish as much as possible before winter sets in, but the cold weather should only cause a temporary lull, for this work has just started and must continue long after the Sanitary forces have gone. We are still way behind the 100 per cent sanitation mark but are getting nearer and nearer to it every day. It is a goal we must ever strive to attain.

It is of the utmost importance that Mason County have a full time county health officer when the survey work is brought to a close. It would never do to take even one backward step now, and it is necessary to have one man, a physician, who will devote his whole time in "pushing sanitation." Like everything else sanitation will not push itself, a force must be behind it. The greatest power in the world is "Popular Sentiment" and Mason county will always have a full time health officer if the sentiment is as strong for general cleanliness as it is for personal cleanliness.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD TO MEET

The Sunday School Board of the Third Street M. E. Church will meet Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the church for the annual election of officers, the appointment of teachers and the planning for Rally Day. TOBACCO HIGH

In Kentucky, According to Report of Sales For August.

The sales of leaf tobacco in Kentucky during the month of August, as reported by Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen, Frankfort, reflects the shortage which is said to exist in all kinds of tobacco at the present time. Of the 1916 crop sold during August there was but 413,300 pounds, of which 371,795 pounds was of the burley type. The highest prices also prevailed for burley, the average of that sold for dealers being as high as $20.84 per 100 pounds.

The high average of $19.32 per 100 pounds prevailing in the entire state of Kentucky for all kinds of tobacco during August indicates clearly the high level reached by market prices this year. Not in many years have growers realized as much on their tobacco crops, and it is believed that quotations for the 1917 crop will also be maintained at the same high level. Old crops of burley failed to sell quite as high as the 1916 crop, but nevertheless are reported at prices which a few seasons ago would have been considered exorbitant.

FIFTY MASON COUNTY FARMER BOYS, BETWEEN THE AGES OF 10 AND 15 YEARS TO JOIN OUR

MASON COUNTY HEIFER CLUB

Believing that the future progress and prosperity of Mason County depends upon the continuing development of its Agricultural interests and the business efficiency of our future Farmers, with the hope of being able to aid in those directions, we have decided to organize a Heifer Club for the Farmer Boys of Mason County.

ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, 1917, we are going to purchase Fifty Grade Shorthorn Heifers, about eight months old and weighing about 600 pounds, which we will distribute among the first fifty Mason County Farmer Boys, between the ages of 10 and 15 years, that apply for and agree to care for same and that can execute a bankable note covering the cost of the Heifer; which note shall be payable in the fall of 1918.

The Heifers will be bought by expert cattlemen connected with the Extension Service of the State College of Agriculture and he distributed among the boys by lot. Each boy will be given the same chance to make good, and required to become a member of the Mason County Boys' Agricultural Club and to care for the Heifer under the directions of the County Agent; to have the Heifer bred to a pure bred Shorthorn Bull, this fall, and to have her and her offspring ready for public exhibition and sale in the fall of 1918. You will not be expected to put up a cent of money now; but, you must properly care for the Heifer and pay for it later and all the increase and profit will be yours.

About $100 will be given away in prizes to the boys getting the best results, with their Heifers, at the exhibition to be held in the fall of 1918. For full particulars call at Bank or see Mr. E. F. Boyd, Jr., County Agent, at once, as we want to close entries to the club by September 1st. We are anxious to help Boys that are willing to work and learn.

WAKE UP, WASHINGTON!

President Wilson is working himself up into a fury over high prices, and the whole business world is becoming discouraged. Production is falling off in crude oil, and there is no doubt that it is falling off in other industries. An illustration: A great many of the prospectors in the oil fields are taking the position that since they can't get good prices, they are not going to take any chances by risking an investment in drills, etc. The cost of sinking a well has doubled in recent months, and the man who puts $30,000 into the ground in the hope of getting something out of it no longer wants to take a chance.

Secretary Lane takes the conservative side and believes that there ought to be ample profits which could be taken in the form of taxes later on. Daniels, Baker and Denman, who have never been noted as students of economy, spend most of their time fussing about prices, and bickering for what they consider good contracts.

The whole tendency of the government today is to discourage quick results. The question of prices has been given precedence over the question of getting things done promptly. This is the whole trouble in Washington.

Everybody knows the need for ships, but all we have had so far is a continued variation of programs—very little actually being done. Everybody knows the need for a greater production of steel, yet the government's attention is devoted almost exclusively to haggling about lower prices.

This is true all along the line. Only a few men are getting into the President's closure and most of these are filling him up with stories about business men working for big profits out of the government.

It is doubtful whether the army cantonnements will be finished by September, or even October. At the present rate of progress in the construction of ships, there is no hope of replacing the tonnage lost by submarine attacks.

Only a disaster will wake up the Administration—Boston News Bureau.

OUR TRADE WITH NEUTRALS

The trouble is not that American goods get into Germany after being imported to the markets of these bordering countries, but that they enable those countries to send their own products to that enemy country, which they could not otherwise do. They do not send the same kind of products; but, if we supply food and materials to them which they might provide to please labor from the production of these and devote it to producing munitions and other things to sell to Germany which they could not otherwise do. It is easy to see how this may work, and actually has worked, to the aid of the enemy and the profit of these neutrals. While this kind of trading was to our advantage it was defended; now that it is to our disadvantage it is discontinued and we are determined to stop it, being no longer neutral ourselves. Self-interest is quite as powerful with nations as with individuals in determining conduct. In a situation like the present it is a pretty serious matter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

HOW TO CHOOSE PROTEIN FOODS ECONOMICALLY

Washington, D. C., September 12.—Since protein is one of the most important food elements which the body needs and in most forms is expensive, housewives should take particular care in the selection of foods rich in protein in order that they may provide this substance in their diet economically, say specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The principles underlying the choice of such foods are discussed in Farmers' Bulletin 824, "Foods Rich in Protein," recently published by the department. Protein, the bulletin points out, is the only form in which the very important element nitrogen is furnished to the human body. The substance is absolutely necessary for the building and repair of body tissues.

The best known foods rich in protein include meats, fish, eggs, milk, cheese, legumes, nuts, etc. The proteins of the different foods vary somewhat in character. It does not make much difference from which materials older persons get their supply of protein, though a variety of kinds usually is considered desirable. In the case of children, however, milk is the very best source of protein.

Housewives may solve the problem of furnishing the needed protein of the diet economically, says the bulletin, by learning how much protein is provided by the different kinds of food and then choosing the kinds which will furnish what the family needs for comparatively low cost and with little waste. For the assistance of housewives in making such comparisons, tables giving the amount of the protein in a pound of various protein-rich foods, and also the percentages of protein in the different foods are included in the bulletin.

In discussing the relation of the protein food consumed to bodily health, the bulletin points out that healthy persons should not make the mistake of assuming that it is necessary to measure their food as carefully as a doctor measures his medicines or even the food which he prescribes for an invalid. If the body is in good condition it adapts itself to the ordinary variations in its food supply. The danger comes when, day in and day out, the body gets too much or too little food, or when the kinds provided are not the most suitable. While there is no need to measure exactly how much protein is obtained with every meal, if the diet as a whole is to be healthful and economical the person who plans it ought to know in

Ben P. Fleming, constable of Mason Co., 217 E. Lee St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

LIPS OF FAMOUS SINGER, SCHUMANN-HEINK, DRAW POISON FROM HOY HITEN BY SNAKE

Los Angeles, Cal., September 11.—Braving death to save the little one's life, Mme. Schumann-Heink, the famous singer, sucked the poison to death from the arm of a nine-year-old boy at Wendon, Ariz., after he had been bitten by a large rattlesnake. Her heroism in rescuing another woman's boy from death came only a few hours after she had bidden farewell to her own son, Fred Schumann, who was leaving for the war.

The lad whom she saved is Carlos Gonzales. He will live, doctors declared late today. Her daughter-in-law had been bitten by a scorpion a few hours after her husband's departure. Little Carlos asserted that rattlesnake poison was on effective antidote to scorpion poison and he started out to kill a snake.

Schumann-Heink went with the lad, who spied a large snake and was bitten in the arm when attempting to capture it.

heedless of the reptile, the Divine snatched the boy from the ground and ran with him a short distance, and with her own lips saved the life of little Carlos.

HOME-READING COURSE FOR CITIZEN-SOLDIERS

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved.)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army, as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 28. WHY WE FIGHT.

(Preceding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp. 7. Your Health. 8. Marching and Care of Feet. 9. Your Equipment and Arms. 10. Recreation in Camp. 11. Playing the Game. 12. Team Work in the Army. 13. Grouping Men into Teams. 14. The Team Leaders. 15. Fighting Arms of the Service. 16. Staff Branches of the Service—I. 17. Staff Branches of the Service—II. 18. Army Insignia. 19. The Army System of Training. 20. Close-Order Drill. 21. Extended-Order Drill. 22. Guard Duty. 23. Getting Ahead in the Army. 24. Army Courtesy. 25. Discipline and Respect for the Colors. 26. Some National Traditions. 27. The Spirit of the Service.)

Every American knows the causes of our war with the German Government. Yet this course would be incomplete if it did not contain a brief review of the events that finally forced us into war, when at last there remained "no other means of defending our rights."

The soldier of an autocratic Kaiser may fight best when he understands least of the true meaning of the war. To tell him the facts would be to chill his enthusiasm. But the citizen soldier of a democracy is entitled to know for what purposes he enters the struggle. He fights best when he sees most clearly why he fights.

The resolution of Congress declaring a state of war (Apr. 6, 1917) expresses the immediate cause in these few words:

"The Imperial German Government has committed repeated acts of war against the Government and the people of the United States of America."

Chief among the acts of war were attacks by German submarines on American ships and on unarmed merchant ships of other nations carrying American passengers. "Vessels of every kind," said the President in his address to Congress on April 2, 1917, "whatever their flag, their character, their cargo, their destination, their errand, have been ruthlessly sent to the bottom without warning and without thought of help or mercy for those on board, the vessels of friendly neutrals along with those of belligerents. Even hospital ships and ships carrying relief to the sorely bereaved and stricken people of Belgium, though the latter were provided with safe conduct through the prescribed areas by the German Government itself and were distinguished by unmistakable marks of identity, have been sunk with the same reckless lack of compassion or of principle." The present German submarine warfare against commerce is a warfare against mankind.

German Insults and Aggressions
There were other acts of hostility in addition to the submarine warfare. In his Flag Day address delivered at Washington on June 14, 1917, the President summed up the events that brought on war as follows:

"It is plain enough how we were forced into the war. The extraordinary insults and aggressions of the Imperial German Government left us no self-respecting choice but to take up arms in defense of our rights as a free people and of our honor as a sovereign Government. The military masters of Germany denied us the right to be neutral. They filled our unsuspecting communities with vicious spies and conspirators and sought to corrupt the opinion of our people in their own behalf. When they found that they could not do that, their agents diligently spread sedition amongst us and sought to draw our own citizens from their allegiance—and some of those agents were men connected with the official embassy of the German Government itself here in our Capital. They sought by violence to destroy our industries and arrest our commerce. They tried to incite Mexico to take up arms against us and to draw Japan into a hostile alliance with her—and that, not by indirection, but by suggestion from the foreign office in Berlin. They impudently denied us the use of the high seas and repeatedly executed their threat that they would send to their death any of our people who ventured to approach the coasts of Europe."

Our Liberty and Safety Involved

Yet even this list of "extraordinary insults and aggressions" does not tell the whole story. Our motives for war go even deeper. Not only our rights and self-respect, but our liberty and safety are involved. Speaking on July 29, 1917, at the officers' training camp at Madison Barracks, N. Y., the Secretary of State said:

"The evil character of the German Government is laid bare before the world. We know now that that Government is inspired with ambitions which menace human liberty, and that to gain its end it does not hesitate to break faith, to violate the most sacred rights, or to perpetrate intolerable acts of inhumanity." Let us understand once for all that this is no war to establish an abstract principle of right. It is a war in which the future of the United States is at stake.

The record out of which grows our deep conviction that it is necessary at once to put a curb on so powerful and unscrupulous an enemy is set forth in an official publication, "How the War Came to America."

"Judging the German Government now in the light of our honest attempt to keep the peace, we could see the great autocracy and read her record through the war. And we found that record damnable. . . . With a fanatical faith in the destiny of German Kultur as the system that must rule the world, the Imperial Government's actions have through years of boasting, double dealing, and deceit tended toward aggression upon the rights of others. And if there still be any doubt as to which nation began this war, there can be no uncertainty as to which one was most prepared, most exultant at the chance, and ready instantly to march upon other nations—even those who had given no offense. The wholesale depredations and hideous atrocities in Belgium and in Serbia were doubtless part and parcel with the Imperial Government's purpose to terrorize small nations into abject submission for generations to come. But in this autocracy has been blind. For its record in those countries, and in Poland and in northern France, has given not only to the allies but to liberal peoples throughout the world the conviction that this menace to human liberties must be utterly shorn of its power for harm."

"For the evil it has effected has ranged far out of Europe—out upon the open seas where its submarines in defiance of law and the concepts of humanity have blown up neutral vessels and covered the waves with the dead and the dying, men and women and children alike. Its agents have conspired against the peace of neutral nations everywhere, sowing the seeds of dissension, ceaselessly endeavoring by tortuous methods of deceit, of bribery, false promises, and intimidation, to stir up brother nations one against the other, in order that the liberal world might not be able to unite. In order that the autocracy might emerge from the war."

"All this we know from our own experience with the Imperial Government. As they have dealt with Europe, so have they dealt with us and with all mankind. And so out of these years the conviction has grown that until the German Nation is divested of such, democracy can not be safe."

Not Hostile to German People
One thing which you should keep always in mind is the clear distinction between our attitude toward the Imperial German Government and our attitude toward the German people. The President said in his speech of June 14, 1917:

"We are not the enemies of the German people and they are not our enemies. They did not originate or desire this hideous war or wish that we should be drawn into it; and we are vaguely conscious that we are fighting their cause, as they will some day see it, is well as our own. They are themselves in the grip of the sinister power that has now at last stretched its ugly tentacles out and drawn blood from us."

Every American soldier in this war fights for objects dearer to all of us than life itself—for freedom and democracy, for the safety of our own homes and families, for the honor of our country. You will think of training and after you actually enter the trenches. The more you think about them, the greater will be your pride that you are one of those first chosen to defend them.

"The world must be made safe for democracy."

GERMAN BUILDINGS BURNED

By Argentinians—Torches Applied to Many German Owned Homes—Hugo Crowl Joins in Demonstration Against Germany.

Buenos Aires, September 12.—The downtown section of the city was the scene of the wildest disorders tonight in connection with anti-German demonstrations in which thousands of Argentinians took part. Many of these in the mobs carried fire brands and as a result scores of buildings were set on fire. Several blocks of German business houses in Calle 25 de Mayo were destroyed.

Among the structures attacked were the German Club, one of the finest edifices in the city, and the building of the German daily La Union. As fast as the fires in these buildings were extinguished they were started again.

Mounted police and the entire fire department kept rushing from one part of the city to another in an attempt to quell the riots and put down the flames.

In several instances police who were attempting to shoot at those wielding torches were set upon by the crowds and disarmed.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken by the authorities to protect Count Von Luxburg, the German minister, when he arrives here tomorrow morning to receive his passports.

EBENEZER PRESBYTERY

Adjourns at Washington After Short Session—Rev. Hooper, Pastor of Washington Church, Moderator.

Ebenezer Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church (U. S.), which has been in session at Washington, took final adjournment last night after a very busy day. A large part of the day was taken up with routine business, but inspirational features were by no means lacking. Good addresses on the mountain schools of the church were made by Rev. Alfred Erickson, Rev. S. T. Hill, and Rev. Mr. Handley; the Foreign Missions Obligation was ably presented by Rev. H. A. Love, and Rev. A. S. Venable; while a splendid sermon was preached to a crowded house by Rev. J. C. Hunt of Covington, Ky. The dinner and supper which were served on the grounds by the ladies of the community showed that the high cost of living has had absolutely no effect on the far-famed hospitality of the Washington people.

Rev. W. P. Hooper, pastor of the Washington Church, was the Moderator of the Presbytery. To be both host and Moderator was a very unusual honor.

The first quarterly meeting of the Second M. E. Church, South, will be held next Sunday, September 16. Rev. J. D. Itted, the Presiding Elder, will preach both morning and evening. Rev. J. J. Diekey, the new pastor will be present.

KERENSKY

Said To Be Gaining Upper Hand in Russian Revolution—Korniloff and Followers Decried Rebels—Situation Still Serious.

Petrograd, September 12.—The provisional government today issued a decree handing over to the courts of justice as rebels General Korniloff, former commander-in-chief of the Russian armies; General Lomekisky, chief of the general staff; General Markoff, the chief of the headquarters staff on the southwestern front, and M. Kisilakoff, assistant to Minister of Roads and communications.

The following statement which was signed "Kerensky, prime minister and commander-in-chief" was given out here today:

"By the armed forces of Russia, I declare my complete faith in all ranks of the army and the fleet, in the generals, admirals, officers, soldiers and sailors who have borne upon their shoulders the heavy trial of the past days.

"The half year's experiment of free existence could not fail to convince everyone that all the extreme irrational demands not instantly carried out, wherefore such demands may have come from, duly cause disturbance to the country. Let everyone remember whatsoever he might be, general or soldier, in the ranks, that the slightest disobedience of authority will henceforth be punished.

"It is time to cease playing with the country's fate. Let all Russians who strive to save the revolution and to achieve freedom and a renewal of the committee order of government understand become imbued with the conviction that in this moment all our ideas and strength should be directed first of all toward the defense of the Fatherland, that external enemy who is aiming to subjugate it."

Washington, September 12.—Reports reaching here today indicating that Premier Kerensky's provisional government was gaining strength in its struggle to prevent General Korniloff from seizing the government, failed to raise the hopes of Russia's friends to any great extent.

Although accepting the government's optimistic announcement that Korniloff's followers were few and some of his soldiers marching on Petrograd had offered to arrest their leader, officials and diplomats said it was difficult to judge the strength of the revolt. They were impressed with the view that even should this uprising be quelled promptly the interests secretly approving Korniloff's attempted coup would remain as dangerous sources for Russia's future unity.

County Judge C. D. Newell, Deputy Sheriff Mike Brown, Messrs. J. C. Everett, Banks Durrett and Chenny Everett left yesterday afternoon for Louisville to attend the State Fair.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

At the recent special session of the Legislature of Kentucky a law was passed levying a tax of one-tenth of one per cent on the individual deposits of banks and providing that the bank may charge the tax to the depositors.

We take this means of notifying the public that out of its own funds and therefore all money deposited in this bank will be free from all State, County and City Taxes.

This Bank Will Pay This Tax for Its Depositors

Your money in this bank, on and after September 1, 1917, will be tax free, but will be subject to a tax of 40 cents on each $100, if you keep it at home.

We will continue to pay interest at the rate of 3 Per Cent. in our Savings Department.
